O'Brien hails 'incredibly special' Minding

October 16, 2016 - QIPCO British Champions Day, Ascot.

Trainer Aidan O'Brien declared he was in 'awe' of the phenomenal 3yo filly MINDING who ran out an impressive victor of the 8f Group One Queen Elizabeth II Stakes (sponsored by QIPCO) at Ascot on Saturday.

The 7/4 favourite, who was recording her seventh Group One win, was always travelling powerfully for jockey Ryan Moore and the pair accelerated to the front just over a furlong from home.

O'Brien waxed lyrical about his superstar filly after the race.

"It's unbelievable - she's an incredibly special filly, to have won seven Group One's before she turns four is like nothing we've ever seen. The best filly we've certainly ever had."

 Good Judges

HENRY LONGFELLOW

" Having inspected HENRY LONGFELLOW in Ireland last year, he got my attention, particularly from an Australian viewpoint. He is very much a DUBAWI - compact, sharp, medium sized, with tremendous quality & presence. Those are very similar characteristics to the likes of TOO DARN HOT and NIGHT OF THUNDER. It is a big opportunity to have a horse like him coming to Australia. "

Sebastian Hutch, Inglis CEO

" First impressions...when I saw him I thought for sure this would have been a £2MILLION YEARLING. A great mover, all quality, superb balance with a very goodhind leg. You can see both elements of DUBAWI & GALILEO there. I really like him. "
